The degree map is a guide for the timely completion of your curricular requirements. Your academic advisor or department may be contacted for assistance in interpreting this map. This map is not reflective of your academic history or transcript and it is not official notification of completion of degree or certificate requirements. Please contact the Registrar's Office regarding your official degree/certificate completion status.

- Students should understand the fundamentals of leadership, i.e., personality characteristics that make great leaders, trainable skills that potential leaders can master, and situational factors that contribute to leadership success and failure.
- Students should understand interpersonal workplace dynamics, including workplace conflict, workplace aggression, and factors that affect workplace cooperation and competitiveness. They should understand the causes and remedies of workplace discrimination and harassment. They should understand the forces that affect employee job satisfaction, retention, and placement.
- Students should understand the importance of employee selection, placement, and training.
- 4. Students should understand the unique aspects of employment in both the private and public sectors in terms of the relative emphasis on entrepreneurial activities and public service. Relevant issues include budgeting, public/private decision-making, managerial norms, ethical behavior, and public relations.
- As many of the students are expected to be in the workforce, there will be opportunity to present and evaluate "real world" examples and case studies.
