Subtitled Courses

An 's' in parentheses between the number and title of a course indicates that the course may be offered under the main title and/or with an appended subtitle, e.g., "Seminar" and/or "Seminar in the History of the Pacific Northwest." The specific area will normally be listed in the class schedule as a separate section of the main course.

Credit Designations

Below each course title, the number of credits authorized is shown in parentheses. Typical designations include the following:

3 credits: three semester credits

1-3 credits: one to three semester credits

1-3 credits, max 3: one to three credits during any academic session, and the course may be repeated until the maximum of three credits has been earned

3 credits, max 12: three credits during any academic session, and the course may be repeated until the maximum of twelve credits has been earned

Credit arranged: credits to be arranged from 1 to 16 credits, and the course may be repeated for credit without restriction as to maximum

1-3 credits, max arranged: one to three credits during any academic session, and the course may be repeated without restriction as to maximum

Standard Course Numbers

University-wide numbers have been established for certain categories of courses.
